DOVE Philanthropy Project

Through our Division of Volunteer Efforts, the Seton Hall community is able to demonstrate its dedication to servant leadership in our local and global communities. Each year, our students travel to serve an orphanage in Haiti, to volunteer at food banks and soup kitchens across New Jersey and so much more. Those experiences are now limited, but as a community Seton Hall can still support DOVE's mission by supporting the DOVE Philanthropy project. Click to learn about how you can support our drives to collect necessary items or make a gift.
